

Mike Corley Scholarship ★ 2022 Application Packet

Who is eligible to apply?

- Active, non-probationary and/or exempt members of the Fortuna Volunteer Fire Department (FVFD), including ERV Explorers.
- Children, grandchildren or spouses of active, non-probationary and/or exempt members of FVFD.
- Qualified Resident Volunteer Firefighters and Resident Intern Firefighters.

Applicants must be enrolled and already attending one of the following accredited scholastic institutions:

- University
- Junior/Community College
- Technical Trade School

Applicants must fully complete the application in its entirety and include in the following order:

- A cover letter introducing yourself and outlining your future personal and career goals. Also include any FVFD activity you've been involved in or related community service you've performed or volunteered for.
- FVFD Scholarship Application form (see attached).
- Verification of acceptance or proof of enrollment from the institution you plan to or are currently attending, showing a minimum of six enrolled units.
- A copy of current transcripts showing a cumulative overall GPA of at least 2.0.
- Two current letters of recommendation: One from a faculty member and the other from a personal friend or associate
- A professional resume including all academic and work history, as well as community service or volunteer time.

Priority will be given in the following order:

- FVFD High School seniors
- First time applicants
- Previously non-awarded applicants
- Previously awarded applicants
- Active members will be given priority over Exempt members.
- Applicants who have or are scheduled to help with the FVFD Mike Corley Scholarship Rodeo booth (or related fundraising event if residing out of the area), will be given additional consideration.
- Applicants that are pursuing public service careers; Fire, Police and medical fields will be given additional consideration.

The Mike Corley Scholarship applications will be evaluated based on the following:

- Verification of the relationship to a FVFD Active or exempt member
- Financial need
- Purpose and plans for higher education
- Personal background, academic and work history, career goals, and references
- Community service participation
- Proof of acceptance from the institution you plan to attend.
- Students must maintain an overall cumulative GPA of 2.0 or higher, for continued eligibility.

Application opening and closing dates:

The Mike Corley Scholarship Committee will begin accepting applications on March 1st, 2022 and the process closes on May 1st, 2022. Applications postmarked after May 1st, 2022 will not be considered and shall be returned to sender. Also, hand delivered applications will not be considered. In order to be accepted, all applications must be mailed (to the below address) and postmarked.
